During the fall, Coles Books in the Cornwall Square Mall adopted St. Columban's. They asked customers if they wanted to donate $2 each to St. Columban's to be put towards the purchase of books. During the campaign they raised just over $1,000. In this picture in the rear (l to r) are Andrea Major, Manager Coles Books, David Kennedy, Principal St. Columban's Catholic School, Jane Beehler and Virginia Winn, librarians for the Catholic District School Board of Eastern Ontario. In the front are Shaelynn Mullin and Bailey Julien, students at St. Columban's.
