

St. John Bosco to benefit from literacy grant

Marda Lamkin (left) and Rebecca Hickey pick out books at Chapters in St. John's Friday for the library at their school. St. John Bosco in Shea Heights was a recipient this year of a $70,000 literacy grant from the Love of Reading Foundation, one of only 20 schools in the country and the only one in this province to get the grant.

— Photo by Gary Hebbard/
The Telegram

